Today's Bible Readings

In the Second Reading St Paul speaks of the Christian dead – 'those who are asleep.' We do not grieve in the same way as others who have no hope. Because Jesus died and rose again, we believe that God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep.

In the Gospel Jesus tells the parable of the wise and foolish virgins. They had come to meet the bridegroom but he was delayed and their lamps needed more oil. The foolish virgins had not brought spare oil. While they had gone to try and obtain more, they missed the bridegroom's arrival, and so found themselves shut out from the marriage feast. Jesus is the divine bridegroom who will come again at an hour we do not know to celebrate his wedding feast with his bride the Church, and to admit those who are there to greet him with their lamps of prayer still burning to the wedding feast of eternal life.

Today at 10.00 am Family Mass we celebrate the First Communion Programme Enrolment. Please pray for the children, their parents and their catechists.

Today is Remembrance Sunday, and so at 11.30 am we celebrate a Solemn Requiem Mass for the War Dead, beginning with the Act of Remembrance.

Congratulations to Oscar Malherbe Cavalerie, one of our senior altar servers who received the Guild 5 Year Certificate last Sunday for continual faithful service at the altar.

Next weekend we have the Annual Collection for the Sick and Retired Priests' Fund of our Diocese of Westminster. Using one of the envelopes available today enables you to gift aid your donation or become a patron by making a regular donation. In 2025 the cost to the Diocese for the care of 75 priests was £1,369,000. We now have 79 retired priests, some of whom are in care. The number of retired priests in our Diocese is steadily increasing.

November is the Month of the Holy Souls. Sheets are available for you to make your list of your dear departed whom you would like us to pray for at Mass throughout November, and envelopes for a Mass offering.

A Message from our Parishioner Karen Townsend: Back at Easter 2024 I travelled to Lourdes as a helper/nurse with HCPT Pilgrimage Group 115, after you had helped me to raise money to take a young person. But earlier this year Denis died. I was blessed to have been part of the team that enabled him to have a truly memorable experience. To honour his memory, I and two friends will be taking part in the Westport sea2summit challenge to raise enough money for HCPT Group 115 take another child this year.
