Today's Bible Readings

The Prophet Isaiah gives a parable of a vineyard, which has had immense care lavished upon it by the owner, but it only yielded wild grapes. He will therefore abandon it. Isaiah's explanation makes the meaning clear: 'The vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells a parable, similar to Isaiah's in the first reading, about the care lavished on a vineyard. At harvest time, the absentee owner sends servants to collect the grapes, but the tenants badly treat them. Finally, he sends his Son, as he believes he will be respected. But the tenants see him as the heir and so throw him out and kill him, hoping to gain his inheritance. The owner will dispatch those tenants and let out the vineyard to new ones who will give him the grapes in due season. Jesus' meaning is explained to the chief priests and elders: 'The kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits.'

In the Second Reading, St Paul tells the Philippians not to be anxious about anything, but to let their requests be made known to God by supplication and thanksgiving. In that case, the peace of God will guard their hearts and minds. Therefore God has highly exalted him.'

Wednesday is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary. The whole of October is the Month of the Rosary, a devotion that can be said anywhere, either individually, or with others. It is recited aloud as a group in church after Mass on Tuesdays and Thursdays. With Mary, we contemplate the mysteries of the life of Jesus: joyful, luminous, sorrowful and glorious.

Family Rosary - Parents and children are invited to a time of praying the rosary during the month of October on Mondays after school in the church. We will start at 3.25pm on the 5th, 12th and 19th October. Just come along if you would like to join and bring a rosary if you have one.

Thursday: Youth 2000 asked to postpone their October meeting from last Thursday until today: there will be Adoration and Benediction from 7.00 – 8.30 pm, with the opportunity for Confessions.

Friday is the Feast of St John Henry Newman, now a Doctor of the Church.

Friday we are keeping as the CAFOD Harvest Fast Day. There will be a collection for this after the Masses next Sunday. CAFOD is the Catholic Agency for Overseas development. Envelopes can be taken today and returned next weekend.

Adoremus: National Eucharistic Congress on Saturday 10th October

We have two parish delegates attending the Congress Mass in St George's Cathedral, Southwark. But all are invited to join the Procession of the Blessed Sacrament from St George's Cathedral, along the South Bank of the Thames, to Westminster Cathedral, beginning at 3.00 pm. It would be wonderful for as many as possible to join us for this public witness to our faith. It will finish at 5pm with Solemn Benediction at Westminster Cathedral presided over by Bishop Jim Curry. This will be followed by Mass at 6 pm. After another Mass at 8pm, the first of three Holy Hours will begin led by the youth ministry teams of Westminster, Southwark and CYMFed – the Catholic Youth Ministry Federation. The Holy Hours will include reflections on Eucharistic saints, prayer led by youth ministry teams and music from One Hope Project. From 11pm an all-night Vigil before the Blessed Sacrament begins, which will finish with Mass at 6am. Please note that everyone wishing to attend the Holy Hours and all night-vigil needs to register their attendance at: <https://westminstercathedral.org.uk/adoremus/>
