Today's Bible Readings

The First Reading is from the Book of Revelation, Apocalypse, the final book of the Bible, which is intended to strengthen Christians under persecution by assuring them of victory and the final glory of the saints in heaven. The servants of God are sealed on their foreheads to sustain them in tribulation. And then follows a vision of the glory of the saints beyond number, who are from all nations, and who worship before the throne of God and the Lamb, clothed in white garments washed in the blood of the Lamb and holding the palm of victory in their hands.

The Psalm tells us that the clean of hands and pure of heart will stand in God's holy place.

In the second reading St John tells us that we are already the children of God, but what we shall be has not yet been revealed – except that we shall be like God because we shall see him as he is.

In the Gospel as the opening of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus proclaims the eight Beatitudes, which are like the different colours in the Christian rainbow of holiness. The pure in heart shall see God. Those persecuted because of their loyalty to Christ are promised a great reward in heaven.

Today, Sunday 1st November, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints.

On Monday 2nd November, All Souls' Day, there will be Requiem Masses at 9.00 am and 6.00 pm, to pray for the souls of all the faithful departed.

November Requiem Masses on Thursday and Friday of this week at 9.00 am.

On Remembrance Sunday, 8th November, there will be a Solemn Requiem Mass at 11.30 am for those who died in War, beginning with the Act of Remembrance.

First Saturday of the Month 7th November. There will be First Saturday Rosary after the 9.30 am Mass. There will not after all be a November Monthly Devotion. However, there will be opportunities for devotion during our Three Days of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, 19th-21st November.
