Today's Bible Readings

In the First Reading the prophet Isaiah tells the people of Israel that if they share their bread with the hungry, house the homeless poor, and clothe the naked, their light will break forth like the dawn.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples, 'You are the light of the world...let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works, and give glory to your Father in heaven.' He also tells them they are the salt of the earth.

In the Second Reading we St Paul tells his converts that he did not come to preach to them with lofty speech or wisdom, and knew nothing among them except Jesus Christ crucified. His message was not couched in words of wisdom, but was a demonstration of the power of the Holy Spirit.

Today: Children's Liturgy Carnival party for children from 4 to 7 years old from 11 to 1pm. Parents can drop and collect them on the dot; children can dress up. Games, activities and food provided. A donation of £2 per child would be appreciated, contactless or in cash.

Today our Parish Lent Information leaflet, 'Return to the Lord your God', is available, giving details of our Lenten activities and devotions. Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, 18th February, with Mass and Imposition of Ashes at 9.00 am (said) and 6.00 pm (Solemn.)

Please pray for Cardinal Vincent, who this week will be retiring as Archbishop of Westminster. This past week he celebrated a Mass of thanksgiving for his 16 years as our Archbishop.

An Appeal for the work of Mary's Meals will be made at all Sunday Masses, next weekend 14th/15th February, with a collection at the end of Mass.

Parish Readers: We are hoping to recruit some new readers to augment our rota. If you are interested in the possibility of training to become one of our Readers at Sunday Mass, do please let the parish office know. We will then invite you to an evening meeting at 7.00 pm on Thursday 26th February, at which there will be a talk on the importance of the proclamation of Scripture in the Liturgy of the Word of the Mass, and on the ministry of Reader, along with some opportunity to practice good reading skills.

We are holding a Welcome Occasion for all those who have become new Parishioners over the last couple of years or so, on Sunday 1st March, 1.00 – 3.00 pm in the Parish Centre. Please take an invitation letter from the back of church. There will be the opportunity to meet Fr Richard, Fr Juan, Therese, and other members of the parish team. There will be light lunchtime refreshments – if you can, bring a plate of food to share. Open to both adults and children of all ages. Let us know you are coming to help us with catering. Come and go at any time between 1.00 and 3.00 pm.

Installation of Archbishop Richard Moth

Please pray for our new Archbishop of Westminster to be installed in Westminster Cathedral next weekend, Archbishop Richard Moth, (previously Bishop of Arundel and Brighton.)

On Friday, the eve of Installation, there is Solemn Vespers at 5.30 pm, at which Archbishop Richard will give the homily. In addition to our parish representatives, there is now space for others to attend, without needing a ticket.

The Installation takes place on Saturday in Solemn Mass at 12 noon – but this is only open to a representative of each parish, who already will have a ticket.

Both these events will be live-streamed via the Cathedral website:
