

PARISH ANNUAL THREE DAYS OF ADORATION 19TH – 21ST NOVEMBER

Adoremus – National Eucharistic Congress took place yesterday and we were represented by two parish delegates. It began at St George's Cathedral, Southwark with Presentations on Eucharistic art and life. The Adoremus Mass was then celebrated by Archbishop John Wilson, followed by a keynote address from Cardinal Timothy Radcliffe OP on "The Eucharist: Our sacrament of hope in dark times." There was then a Procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the streets, (a wonderful act of witness,) to Westminster Cathedral where Solemn Benediction was given, followed by Holy Hours and an all-night vigil. This national event recognising that Jesus is present with us in the Eucharist will inspire us to keep with zeal our Parish Annual Three Days of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, 19th -21st November, culminating with a Solemn Mass of Christ the King on Saturday 21st November at 6.00 pm, celebrated by Bishop Michael Campbell. We will take as a theme the Eucharistic teaching of St Francis of Assisi, whose 800th anniversary of death is celebrated this year. Full information on how we can all take part will be in a leaflet available from 1st November onwards.
