Today's Bible Readings

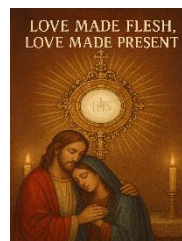

The Gospel anticipates Advent, starting in two weeks, as Jesus invites his disciples to look ahead to the future. Before Christ comes again in glory there will be natural disasters, plagues, wars and revolutions. They must expect persecution for witnessing to him, but by their endurance they will gain their lives. In the first reading Malachi prophesies that for those who fear God's name the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings.

Today: the Annual Collection for the Sick and Retired Priests' Fund of our Diocese takes place after all Masses. Last year, the Diocese of Westminster provided care to 73 retired priests, at a cost of £1,270,000. Using a donation envelope enables you to gift aid. You can also set up a regular donation and become a Patron by completing section 4 on the envelope form.

Friday is the Feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

November is the Month of the Holy Souls. Please take a special sheet from the back of church, together with a donation envelope towards Requiem Masses, and write down the names of your own dear departed for whom you wish prayers to be offered, and return both to the presbytery. The pages will be assembled in a book of remembrance, which will be placed before the altar throughout November.
